REQUIREMENTS & CONDITIONS

Prospective members are advised that an application for membership involves a portfolio assessment and an applicant interview, and that evidence of high standards is required.

The category of Non-Corporate Membership is divided into the following classes :

- (i) Graduate Members
- (ii) Associate Members
- (iii) Academic Members

Qualifications for Non-Corporate Membership

A candidate for admission as a Non-Corporate Member shall possess a qualification which the MIID Constitution and the Bye-laws may prescribe, or allow, and which is acceptable to the Council of the Institute.

(1) Graduate Members

Subject to the requirements of the law for the time being in force (including but not limited to the Architects Act 1967), a candidate for admission as a Graduate Member must be a person who:-

- is a Malaysian Citizen residing in Malaysia;
- is not eligible for Ordinary Membership under Clause 4.4.2;
- holds the qualification recognized by the Board; and
- is registered as a Graduate Interior Designer under the Architects Acts 1967, and who is acceptable to the Council for admission to Graduate Membership of the Institute. He shall not remain a Graduate Member after he has obtained the practical experience as may be determined by the Board which qualifies him to be a candidate for Corporate Membership and may thereupon apply to become a Corporate Member of the Institute.

(2) Associate Members

A candidate for admission as an Associate Member must be a person who:-

- is residing in Malaysia;
- has graduated from a school of interior design or architecture but who is not qualified for admission as an Ordinary Member, Graduate Member or Academic Member but is acceptable to the Council for Associate Membership and is interested in the objectives of the Institute; and/or
- is employed full time in an interior design or architectural practice, or engaged in the building and design industry in Malaysia.

(3) Academic Members

A candidate for admission as an Academic Member must be a person who is residing in Malaysia and who:-

- possesses a qualification in interior design or architecture acceptable to the Council for Academic Membership and is interested in the objectives of the Institute;
- is engaging in full time lecturing or teaching interior design or architecture in a university or university college, or engaging in building research or special projects, in Malaysia; and
- if he is not qualified for admission as an Ordinary Member, Graduate Member or Associate Member, he may upon nomination using the prescribed form under the Bye-laws and subject to the approval of the Council be eligible to be admitted as an Academic Member. The Council may at any time and without being required to give any reason terminate his membership.
